DAILY SENTINEL.

"I WOULD RATHER BE RIGHT THAN BE PRESIDENT."—Henry Clay.

VOL. II. RALEIGH, MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 25, 1867. NO. 170.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

Announcement by Authority of the President's Position---Radicalism Jubilant and Temporary Triumphant---Why Stevens Aided the Democrats to Fillibuster, Etc.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.

The announcement made evidently by authority in the Administration organ of this city, as well as in the Washington correspondence of the Baltimore Sun and other papers of this morning, that the President will not sign the reconstruction bill which passed Congress yesterday, has put an end to all speculation on the score of its fate during the present Congress, and every one is impatiently waiting to know what will be said in the President returning the bill with his objections. Of course there is not the slightest doubt of its passage again over the veto. The Radicals are masters of the situation, and it is not imagined that they or any of them would be moved by what is said in objection to their action. It appears from these positive statements regarding what Mr. Johnson's intentions are, that those who ascribed to him the position of an unalterative resolve to stand by his policy were right in their reckoning. So many different stories have been in circulation of late, and all made so positively by parties known to be generally among the best informed, that it was altogether impossible to know upon what to rely. The position taken by Senator Reverdy Johnson has strengthened the Radicals in Congress very much, and will give them strong grounds in reiterating a favorite dogma that President Johnson has proved himself a bad friend to the South. The same charges are made against the Democrats who voted against the bill. With a profession of magnanimity it is declared that should the South meet in the spirit of favor the form of reconstruction offered, it will not be long before the disability clause will be removed, and disfranchisement stricken out of its provisions. The friends of Thad. Stevens claim that he acted with the minority in fillibustering night before last for a purpose which he has achieved. It is not belived now that the first session of the next Congress will be a lengthy one. It would only be delayed in case of impeachment; and just now it is the opinion that enough has been accomplished to do away with the removal of the President; but Butler may create a furor when he takes his seat, and renew the cry for his decapitation. No one knows what a day may bring forth.

An act to Abolish Imprisonment for Debt

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful to arrest or imprison any person upon any original writ, for debt, assumpsit, covenant or any other breach of contract, issuing out of any court of record in this State, or upon any warrant issuing from any Justice of the Peace, nor upon any capias ad satisfaciendum issuing from any court of record, or from any Justice of the Peace in this State.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That all original writs shall only summon the defendant or defendants to be, and appear at the next Term of the Court, to which said writs are returnable; Provided, That if the plaintiff in any action of debt, assumpsit, or covenant, shall make oath in writing, that the defendant or defendants are about to remove himself or property beyond the limits of this State, and shall, at the same time, swear to the amount that such person or persons are indebted to him, and that the same is justly due, then the plaintiff shall have a capias ad respondendum or ad satisfaciendum, or a bail warrant to arrest the body of such absconding debtor; Provided further, That if at any time after the issuing of the writ and before execution levied, the plaintiff, his agent or attorney shall make oath before the Clerk of the Court from which the writ is issued, that the defendant is about to leave the State, then the Clerk shall issue an alias writ of capias ad respondendum or ad satisfaciendum as the case may be, and the defendant shall be required to give bail.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That all laws and clauses of laws coming in conflict with this Act, be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That this Act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified this 21st day of February, 1867.

Speaker House of Commons.

An Irishman's Will.

In the name of God, Amen! I, Timothy Dolan, of Ballydowderry, in the county of Clare, farmer, being sick and wake in the legs, but of sound head and warm hart—glory be to God!—do make this, me first and last will, and ould and new testament; and first, I give my soul to God whin it pleases him to take it, shure no thanks to me, for I cant help it thin, and my body to be buried in the ground in Ballydowderry Chapel, where all my kith and kin that have gone before me and those that live after me, belonging to me are buried. Pace to their ashes, and may the sod rest lightly on their bones. Bury me near me godfather, Felix O'Flaherty, bechuxt and betune him and me, me father and mother who lie separated all together, at the other side of the chapel yard. I have the bit of ground, containing 10 acres—rale ould Irish acres—to me eldest son Tim, after the death of his mother, if she survives him. Me daughter Mary and her husband Paddy O'Reagan, are to get the white sow that's going to have 12 black bonifs. Tedy, me second boy, that was killed in the war of Amerikay, might have got his pick of the powltry, but as he is gone, I'll lave them to his wife, who died a wake afore him. I bequath to all mankind the fresh air of Heaven, all the fishes of the sea they can take, and all the birds of the air they can shoot. I lave to thim all the Sun and Moon and sthars. I lave to Peter Rafferty a pint of potheen I can't finish, and may God be marciful to him.

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

FIRST.—Nothing is so uncertain as Life.
SECOND.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your Life, which is not immediate.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or south.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the impositions of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have; goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

"COURIER, Oct. 19, 1866.

MISS M. A. BUIE, SO FAVORABLY KNOWN during the war as the "Soldier's Friend," is engaged in the attempt to found a School for the orphan children of Southern Soldiers. She proposes that contributions for this purpose should be placed in the hands of some gentleman of this state, to be appointed by the Governor, and that the School shall be located in some desirable portion of the South. I commend this laudable undertaking to all charitable persons, and I wish that the amplest success may reward the patriotic efforts of Miss Buie.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Monday Evening, Feb. 25, 1867.

The Sherman Bill.

This act of the Congress is the subject of much comment. The wonder is, that it has not struck dumb, every native born American. It is so un-American, so anti-republican in its character, and bears such a resemblance to the acts of the despotisms of Europe, that one can hardly realize the fact that we still live in a "so-called" American Republic.

The bill seems to suit no one precisely. Ultra Republicans or Radicals feign to think it too tame and lenient to the South, while men of more moderation in that party dislike its stringency; and one professed conservative, considering it the best he could get, actually voted for it. Perhaps none are more disappointed than the so-called Southern loyalists. These modern loyalists find that they are better known than they supposed, at Washington. Their own tails have been caught in the trap they set for others, and their loyalty to the Radical party has been fully put to the test.

We readily confess our disappointment. We were still clinging to the ides and the hope, that we lived in a Republic, with some shreds of the Constitution left, but alas! we wake up to the sad reality, that we have neither. The bill plainly assumes, that there are no powers or rights in States or in the co ordinate branches of the government, but that all power is lodged in the Congress and that that body is perpetual.

It is understood that the Presidential veto will be sent into Congress to-day, and that the bill will become a law by the two thirds vote over the veto. The President could not do otherwise, yet he might do more. He cannot be consistent with his pledges to the country, unless he bring the bill in some form to the ordeal of the Supreme Court, and until he has exhausted the powers of the executive and judiciary departments to save the country and the Republic from utter overthrow. Moreover, the time has arrived when the Democracy and the conservatives of the North, if their principles are not mere talk, to arrest the progress of destruction by the most active and efficient measures. The South is powerless. She will submit though she may remonstrate, simply because she is on her back and Radicalism has its hand upon her throat. Yet we judge the conservatism of the country might bring the nation to pause, to consider, ere it plunges into the vortex from which there is no escape. We of course allude to moral means.

If the North submit, it would be the sheerest folly in the South to kick against it. It must submit to the yoke quietly, contented with simple remonstrance. Universal negro suffrage and equality, are to be made the terrible penalty for the attempt at secession. Fanaticism will be satisfied with nothing short of it, and the North is in its clutches and will enforce it. The South may be compelled to submit to it, but no honest, well-bred Southron will entail such dishonor upon his country by any act of his. Let the Congress bear the responsibility and the odium of forcing it upon the South, by the votes of the blacks themselves and the unprincipled whites. The bill does not disfranchise the writer of this, yet no act of his shall desecrate and dishonor his native soil.

Yet we implore our people of all classes high and low, to be quiet and submissive to whatever laws may be forced upon us. We have had enough blood and suffering. Let no act of ours disturb the public quiet. If the "revolution" must go on, so far as we are concerned, let it be a bloodless one. If we are doomed to the vexatious turmoil of military rule, let those clothed with authority find us industriously at work to make bread, living in peace and quiet with black and white, obeying the laws and fulfilling all the obligations of good citizenship.

The following analysis of the bill, is the best we have seen. Whether it will bear the test of a critical judicial analysis, we cannot say. It is taken from our clear headed, judicious and able cotemporary, the Richmond Enquirer, and we append it in lieu of a less able analysis from our own pen. The advice given to Virginians and the Legislature of that State by the Enquirer, is worthy of consideration. The bill in the opinion of the Enquirer contains the following points:

1st. The declaration that the Southern States have no legal governments; and that such governments as exist here, shall be permitted merely during pleasure, and only as provisional, and shall be abolished, modified, controlled, or superseded, in the discretion of Congress

2d. Said States are at once placed under military rule, their governments subordinated to martial law, and superseded or controlled in the discretion of commanders of Departments, military commissions authorized for the trial of such persons as these commanders may choose to arrest, and all interference of the State authority for the protection of citizens, declared null and void.

3d. During the permitted continuance of the present State organizations, no person shall be eligible to any offices under them, who comes under the proscriptions of the Constitutional amendment. That is to say, no one who had ever held an office State or Federal, which required him to take an oath to suport the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards took the Southern side in the late war, either by active participation or by giving aid and comfort.

4th. Further, during the permitted continuance of the present State organizations, the elective franchise is so controlled and modified, that all qualifications for suffrage are abolished, except twenty-one years for age, one year for residence, and male for sex; while all those are proscribed as above stated, from holding office.

So much for the condition of the States, under their provisional governments. The following is the way of escape into a permanent, establishment:

5th. If any State shall form a Constitution through a Convention elected by a suffrage and under the restrictions above provided,—and if said Constitution by a like vote be ratified, and shall make all suffrage the permanent law of the State,—and if said Constitution after submission to Congress, shall be approved by it—and if a legislature elected under said Constitution, shall ratify the Constitutional Amendment, then said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and the military rule shall cease therein.

Such is the scheme. Diabolus could not have contrived one more utterly unwise, unjustifiable, inhuman and tyrannical. It is useless to argue against such unbridled passion as alone could have suggested and adopted it. "He who spits against the wind, spits in his own face." The fundamental proposition of the whole, is that which denies the existence and integrity of our State organizations. Our defence lies in traversing this position. Our only mode of making this defence is by an appeal to the courts—This it is our duty to make. A case must be made up; and we suppose it may be speedily done under the 3d of the above recited points, on the question of eligibility to office. It will be contended by the hungerers and thirsters that the proscription will displace those liable to it, who are now in office. An order for ejectment, or an application to prohibit it, will get the question before the courts. If it be held that our State governments are valid, and according to the Constitution, them all the attempts to alter our suffrage, and to dictate qualifications for State office, will be pronounced void. We must bring to judicial test also the right of Congress to pass martial law, and to subordinate the civil to the military in these States, in a time of profound peace, publicly proclaimed.

This is all that we can do;—but this it is our duty to do, and the Legislature should make suitable provision. We must be calm and patient, but we owe it to ourselves, and to our children, and we owe it to the cause of Constitutional liberty, to exhaust every civil resource to which we can appeal, against the enormous injustice contrived against us. If the Supreme Court shall decide unpropitiously,—if it shall rule that a Southern citizen has no rights which Congress is under any obligation to respect,—then we will indeed have heard the knell of Southern hope and American liberty.

Amnesty and Pardon.

The following decision of the Supreme Court, at its present session, was delivered some days ago, by His Honor Judge Reade, and we take the earliest opportunity to lay it before our readers. Its clear and apt construction of the Amnesty Act, passed at the present session of the Legislature, will be highly satisfactory to the public, and will set at rest, we trust, all the unfortunate litigation, which has sprung up in the Western Counties especially, originating in acts committed during the war. We clip the decision from the Wilmington Journal.

SUPREME COURT—FIRST TERM, 1867.

THE STATE VS. WM. BLALOCK AND OTHERS

READE, J.—There were sixteen persons indicted in this case. They were citizens of North Carolina, and during the war they enlisted in the Federal service, and engaged in a fight, with arms, with certain of the Home Guards in the Confederate service; and some were wounded on both sides. Several interesting questions were discussed at the Bar as to the regularity of the enlistment, and of the swearing and mustering in of the defendants, involving the general question, whether they were soldiers in the Federal service at all. And if they were, then, whether they were acting under orders, or were marauders.

But we are relieved from deciding these complex and embarrassing questions, by reason of the fact, that since the trial below, the Legislature has passed an act of Amnesty and Pardon, which embraces this case. We did indeed, so far consider the facts as to enable us to determine that the defendants are not clearly entitled to an acquittal upon the merits, because, if they were, they would be entitled to a new trial to save the costs. But it is evident that their guilt or innocence is involved in much doubt, and we can see no good likely to result from another trial.

The conflict of arms and political disturbances through which we have passed, have troubled society to its deep foundations. Those who are now neighbors have lately been in armed hostility and met each other with deadly purpose; property and lives have been sacrificed; those who were in command had to compel obedience, and were sometimes too imperious; those who had to serve were worn out and irritable and sometimes resistant; the rapacious plundered and the innocent suffered. Every one has something unpleasant to remember, and many have wrongs to revenge; criminal prosecutions and civil suits necessarily sprung out of such a past. The details, not to say the exaggerations of irritating facts; the conflict of witnesses; the discussions between zealous advocates; the denunciations of parties; the hazard of costs and damages, and the inflictions of punishments, would not only keep alive, but would cause these evils to spread into a pestilence. While so many have injuries to revenge, quite as many have errors to regret; and it will be a great public good if the past can be forgiven and forgotten. In view of this, the Legislature at its present session passed an act which provides:

"An Act granting a general Amnesty and Pardon to all officers and soldiers of the State of North Carolina, or of the late Confederate States armies, or of the United States, for offences committed against the Criminal Laws of the State of North Carolina."

We have so recently published the act in the Sentinel, our readers will recollect its provisions or can readily refer to it. The Judge proceeds:

The legislation of this kind has not been unfrequent, when occasions of great strife have made it proper. It is generally applied to whole classes for the purpose of restoring tranquility in the State. It is the gracious act of the Government towards its erring subjects. It is the most amicable prerogative of the Government. Law cannot be founded on principles of compassion to guilt. The rugged task of condemning and punishing is for the Courts; the gracious act of forgiving is for the Crown. 4 Blackstone, 401. Pardon and amnesty are not precisely the same. A pardon is granted to one who is certainly guilty, sometimes before, but usually after conviction, and the Court takes no notice of it, unless pleaded, or in some way claimed by the person pardoned; and it is usually granted by the Crown or by the Executive. But amnesty is to those who may be guilty, and is usually granted by the Parliament or the Legislature, and to whole classes, and before conviction. Amnesty is the abolition or forgetfulness of the offence; pardon is its forgiveness. The act under consideration is both. It is most beneficiently intended, as it is well calculated to lull strife to sleep.

It embraces all who may be supposed to have committed crimes or injuries by reason of their connection with the late war, whether they were officers or privates, or whether they were of the Federal or Confederate forces; and whether they have been convicted or not.

The propriety of embracing those of both armies is apparent from the facts of this case.—Those who were engaged in the fight were neighbors, and must meet each other and live together, either in forgetfulness and forgiveness of the past, or in hatred and strife. And besides, it is to be expected, as it is desirable, that those of the opposing sections, who are not now neighbors, will, in many instances, become so by removals, and the intercourse of a common people, and the duties of a common government, will throw them together.

If there were doubts whether the act embraces defendants, by reason of any technical defect in their enlistment into service, we should still be inclined to give them its benefits, as acts of grace are to be liberally construed in favor of the subjects, it being the highest respect to the government to suppose that its most amiable prerogative is not sparingly exercised. And it will tend much to induce repose to the public mind, that liabilities for war crimes, and redress for war injuries are not to be thought of, and need not be discussed, either in private or public.

Ordinarily, a pardon must be pleaded at the trial, or claimed after conviction, and a failure to do so is a waiver of its benefits. But a general act of amnesty and pardon must be taken notice of by the Courts, like any other public law. It cannot even be waived by the persons embraced.

This opinion must be certified to the Court below, to the end that the defendants may be discharged upon the payment of costs.

We perceive no error in the record.

Imprisonment for Debt. &c.

The act passed the present session of the Legislature abolishing imprisonment for debt, will be found on the first page, with other interesting matter. The Homestead bill will be published as soon as it can be obtained after ratification.

Adjournment.

Both Houses agreed to adjourn to-day on the 4th of March to meet again on the third Monday in August next.

IT HAS BEEN the proud boast of republican government that it rests upon the free opinions of the people. But the Congress of the United States proffers to the people of the South a plan of reconstruction which wields the sword in one hand and negro suffrage in the other; and, as if this was not enough, it demands that they shall brand every citizen whom they have thought worthy in the past of legislative or executive honors, as unfit henceforth to hold an office or even cast his ballot. The bill ignores the Constitution for on - hird of the Union. No man's fireside is free from the intrusive tread of the military. No man's property is exempt from its usurpations. Free speech is a mockery, and, from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, the word of an officer is more potent than the voice of the judge. A people born free—our countrymen—the descendants of a Washington, and a Marshall, and a Lowndes, and a Henry, are to be permitted to erect governments for themselves if they will make voters of their recent slaves, not yet accustomed to liberty, ignorant of the obligations of a freeman, and utterly unacquainted with the very rudiments of the science of government?

And to make this incubus hideous, they are required to disfranchise and disqualify for office every man who in the past has proved his capacity for public affairs, by serving his countrymen on the bench, in the forum, or even as magistrate and constable. Now, suppose that the South had overrun us, is there a true Union man who would, under any circumstances, or for any purpose, even to save life, vote for the perpetual disqualication of the men whose lead he followed during the war, and not those only, but of all the men who have ever served us in the Senate, and in the House, and in our State legislatures? The proposition is a monstrosity which shocks the manhood of every true hearted American who will calmly think of its infinitude of degradation. Yet this is the sting of the third section of the constitutional amendment, which is made the very cornerstone of this infamous bill, and the rejection of which is made the groundwork of the fierce rhetoric so freely heaped upon the men of the South.—Heaven save the American people if the men of the North persist in imposing a degradation on their countrymen in the South that, if the tables had been turned, they ought to die rather than endure in their own persons!—National Intelligencer.

A Cabbage as is a Cabbage.

Brick Pomeroy has had a present of a Cabbage, such a cabbage! Here's his description of it and how he is going to dispose of it;

It was a perfect Colossus among cabbages, and evidently grew in a forty acre field by itself, and probably if it could have had growing weather a few months longer, it would have covered the entire forty acres. We have been speculating what we should do with it, and have come to the conclusion to pickle a quarter of it, if we can find barrels enough, save another quarter for the winter supply of cut cabbage with our oysters, reserve the third quarter to cook with corn beef for the next twelve months, and donate the last quarter to certain ignorant and brainless La Crosse Republicans, to fill up the vacuum in their upper stories, and leave them furnished with a cheap substitute for brains.

THE MANUFACTURERS EMPLOYED TO SUPPLY artificial legs at the expense of the State, to soldiers of this State who lost their legs in the military service of the State or late Confederate Government in the late war, have nearly completed their undertaking, and as there may be some entitled to be supplied who have not made application, all such are requested to apply to the Sheriffs of their respective counties and procure the requisite certificates (printed forms of which are in the hands of every Sheriff) and make application without delay.

No report has been received from the Sheriff's of the following counties showing how many have lost legs, and none have applied to be supplied from these counties—to-wit: Bertie, Camden, Carteret, Chowan, Clay, Perquimans and Tyrrell.

The Sheriff of Caswell reported 2; Haywood 4; Hyde 2; Jones 1; Transylvania 3; and from these counties no application has been made for an artificial leg, or for commutation for one.

THE SENTINEL.

Monday Evening, Feb. 25, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Messrs. O. G. Parsly & Co., Wilmington, announce the arrival of a fine new crop of molasses, just from Cardenas.

B. P. Williamson & Co., offer Guano and other standard manures.

W. Robert Andrews, Grocer, gives an important notice to customers.

The Finance Committee of Wake make an important announcement.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., have opened the Spring Trade. See advertisements.

A gentleman with a small family desires to rent a small house.

Messrs. Branson & Farrar have Inks and School books just received.

Wm. H. Thompson Watchmaker and Jeweller, has opened his old stand.

Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, offer large stock of Builders materials, &c.

Artificial Limbs.

We call special attention to the advertisement of Gov. Worth, notifying the Sheriffs of various counties in regard to the failure of some of them to report the number of maimed soldiers in their counties. Also the delay of some reported to come forward to be supplied. The contract will soon be completed and it is important that all should be supplied before the contractor closes up the establishment.

COL. KENAN.—The Speaker, Mr. McAden, was necessarily absent from the House on Saturday and to-day, and we learn that Col. Kenan, of Duplin, filled the chair with much propriety and dignity.

We are sorry to have to announce, that Mr. J. C. Williams, the faithful and prompt Senator from Sampson, is detained from his seat by sickness, in consequence of which he has been obliged to return home.

Our reporter in the Senate being sick, we acknowledge our obligations to a valued friend, a member of the Senate, for notes of its proceedings to-day.

MISTAKE OF THE ENTERPRISE.—This paper alluding to the late murder of Mayo, says: "Previous to the war, rewards were offered by the Executive for the arrest of such criminals, (meaning murderers) but it is not done now."—Gov. Worth is not liable to the charge of neglecting his duty. Every case which has been reported to him officially and promptly, requiring the issue of a proclamation offering reward, he has promptly issued. In several cases, proclamations have been issued but published in distant papers where the fugitives were supposed to be lurking, which perhaps the Enterprise never saw. Several rewards have already been paid for the apprehension of fugitives under proclamation. Where proclamations have not been issued, it has been owing to the failure to notify him, or to private reasons, rendered by parties concerned, which suggested the propriety of omitting it.

COL. TEW.—Our cotemporary, the Newbern Commercial, is incorrect in supposing that the case of Col. Tew led Gov. Worth to make inquiry of the Adjutant General of the U. S. if there were any N. C. soldiers confined in Federal prisons. The inquiry was made some time before the case of Col. Tew was heard of, because of rumors from various sources, that there were still some of our soldiers in Northern prisons, who were so diseased they could not get home. The Adjutant General's reply was to this inquiry, that there were none.

Nothing has been heard from the case of Col. Tew, though inquiries have been made, except from one or two responsible persons in South Carolina, who are known to have been released from the Dry Tortugas prison not long since, who state positively they knew of no one named Tew, or Hamilton or Wallace while they were there. The impression is, that the statements of Wallace are unfounded, yet inquiries will be pressed. Indeed, we learn, that Col. Tew's father will visit Tortugas if allowed to do so, unless he receives assurances that it would be unavailing.

The Charlotte Times says, that the Mecklenburg Female College has opened its session with flattering prospects. Rev. Mr. Stacy, has a good corps of instructors.

THE "MILTONIAN TABLEAUX OF PARADISE LOST."—These Tableaux have been on exhibition at Wilmington, for a short time, and seem to have excited much interest. The press of that city notice them very favorably.

FORGERY.—A fellow named Shiers was detected in Wilmington, using forged checks upon the National Bank, and through the agency of a little boy succeeded in collecting one for $50 from the National Bank. He has since been arrested at Goldsboro' and carried back to Wilmington, and committed to prison.

Mr. Hanna has been relieved from the editorialship of the Norfolk Virginian and J. Baron Hope, Esq., has succeeded him. Mr. Hanna was a capital editor and Baron Hope is ditto.—The Virginian under the management of either, is an interesting and popular paper.

What miserable blunders the types make sometimes. More than all, some typos won't always correct mistakes when pointed out.—The local of the Richmond Whig, on the 23d, noting the neglect of Washington's birthday in that city, remarks:

"Not a drum was heard," nor did we see, except on the Capitol, the bar tangled spanner. Forever fleet that standard shout."

Our Monday Morning Dispatches

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.

In the Senate, a motion to restore the monitor Onandago to Gen. Quintard on his refunding of seven hundred thousand dollars, passed.

The bill ordering disbursing officers to refuse the payment of claims which accrued before the war, except on the establishment of persistent loyalty by the claimant, passed.

The House was in committee of the whole on the civil expenses. A number of light houses on the Pacific coast were ordered.

Mr. Schofield opposed the further appropriations for the Capitol. He had no idea that the Capitol was going to remain here. He abused the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. The appropriations include over a half million for improvements, hereabouts. Also for the survey of the Atlantic and Gulf coasts, a quarter of a million; for the survey of the South Florida reefs, twenty-five thousand; also ten thousand for the marine hospital at Louisville, forty thousand for the removal of the wrecks in the Mississippi.

Section sixth directs the clerk of the House to select papers in the unrepresented States, not exceeding one in each Congressional district, to publish the treaties and laws at a rate not exceeding a dollar per square of eight lines. The discussion developed the fact that the object was to foster loyal papers throughout the South.

Report of the Minority of the Carolina Murder Committee—Foreign Ministers.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.

Mr. Cooper's minority Carolina murder report says: That it is true that Gens. Thomas, Sickles, Wood and Baird say in testimony that the State courts do not administer full and impartial justice, where Union men, soldiers and freedmen are litigants, and that they are not safe. But they, in answer to a direct question, could furnish but one case in Tennessee, one in Mississippi at Grenada and one in Louisiana, none in Virginia except the Watson case, none in North Carolina, Florida, Georgia or Alabama. They all testify explicitly that there is no fault with the Governors of the respective States, or Judges of the Supreme Courts or other high officials, or the intelligent well informed citizens.

Gen. Schofield testifies that negroes arraigned for crime are dealt with leniently rather than harshly. The general feeling of the respectable people of Virginia is pity for the freedmen. The report takes strong ground against the policy and constitutionality of the proposed military governments.

Messrs. Hall, Sanford, Murphy and Norris ministers abroad, and Consuls McMath and Perry indignantly deny the truth of McCracken's charge, that they never permit an occasion to pass to vilify President Johnson and the members of his cabinet.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

Vetoes—Speaker Colfax—Frauds.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.

The President is urged by the Herald and Post to veto the abominable tariff bill, by the Tribune to veto the wretched measure inflating the currency by issuing a hundred million legal tenders to retire the compound interest notes, and by the World, to veto the outrageous reconstruction bill.

Mr. Colfax has no opposition for speaker.

The revenue fraud Committee closes their report by saying, that there may be some mention of revenue officers in New York, Philadelphia and Brooklyn. Nevertheless frauds are so universal and gigantic, the morals of the manufacturers so tainted, and the confidence in the local officers so shaken that re-organization is necessary.

WE OFFER TO THE PUBLIC THIS CELEBRATED Oil, and in doing so we unhesitatingly pronounce it SUPERIOR TO ANY BURNING OIL IN USE. It is Non-Explosive. Free from Grease. It will not grease the hands. It will not soil or grease the clothing. It is more brilliant than Gas. It produces a soft and beautiful light. It is not so trying to the eyes. It can be used in any Kerosene Lamp by adopting our LIGHT HOUSE OR RACTCHET BURNERS.

It has been most favorably received, and pronounced by judges to be the

THE BEST AND MOST RELIABLE OIL

now in the market; and in consequence of the many serious accidents arising from the EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE, this Oil is extensively known and used in preference.

We are now prepared to furnish the trade with this valuable Oil, and we solicit from the public an examination and trial.

We have on hand a large stock of

and can supply the trade on liberal terms.

RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1864 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS.
SOLE PROPRIETORS AT THE
Delaware River Chemical Works,
PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 Parts Consist of
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	35.80
(soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	.20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
